

An Important Clearance Sale of Ladies' Tailored Suits

The only reason for this decisive cut in prices is to make room for the new Wash Suits. As for the Suits involved in this price-lowering, every single one of them is as desirable as it was a few days back, when they commanded full regular prices.

Suits Valued up to $22.50, now $15.00

When this store makes a reduction, it is not done in a half-hearted manner. We don't do things by the halves, and this group of Suits at $15.00 will emphasize our statement in a manner that will leave no doubt in your mind of its correctness. There are just exactly ten Suits in the lot. Many of them cannot now be duplicated at our regular prices, and the styles are those that will be worn for months to come. The materials are Wool Poplins, Serges, Gabardines and Checks. Choice of any Suit in the lot, $15.00.

Better Suits Reduced

Now, please bear in mind that these Suits come right out of regular stock. They are the self-same Suits you have admired and would have purchased without a moment's hesitation, if you had the least idea that they could have been bought for anything like the prices we are selling them for to-day. If you take our advice, you will make your selection early.

Extra Special--Porch Pillows 49c each

We have a large quantity of these Cretonne-Covered Porch Pillows that we are going to put out at practically the price of the Pillow alone. They are just what you want for summer use on your porch or in your auto. See them in our window Saturday at only 49c each.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: W. B. Lord of Bradford, H. N. Kimball of Enosburg Falls, H. J. Markoff of West Rutland, J. M. Brownell of Wayland, N. Y., W. A. Angers and W. A. Gage of Burlington, C. C. Calderwood of St. Johnsbury, Ralph W. Putnam of Putnamsville, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cutter of Boston, S. W. Washburn of Bethel, A. A. At the semi-annual meeting of the Italian Citizens' club, which has attractively appointed club rooms on the ground floor of the Northern hotel, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: President, J. B. Sanguinetti; vice-president, Angelo Calderara; secretary, B. Lucchini; treasurer, John Casabella; executive board, F. Giudici, C. Bianchi, E. Brogini and G. Valli; auditors, Guy Ottolini and A. Brogini. The meeting was held last evening and the officers are to be installed at the regular meeting in July. The affairs of the club are in a flourishing condition, and as the finances of the organization are unusually encouraging, the outlook for the future is considered bright.

On arriving at the top of Falls hill in Williamstown last night a party of autoists discovered their passage blocked by a small landslide. The recent rains had undermined a large boulder a little way up the slope, causing it to roll down the decline, carrying with it a couple of small trees and quite a bit of gravel and dirt. The trees were small and did not cause much trouble but the boulder measured about seven feet in diameter and laid about half way across the road, making the way impassable until the passengers went back a mile and a half to a farmhouse to get a sledge hammer to break up the stone, and shovels to throw the debris away.

Young men and some of the elders of the North Barre colony have caught the preparedness fever and to the end that their efforts may have organization they have formed a rifle club with R. Sironi as president and E. Abbiatti as secretary and treasurer. The Cipolla club, as it is called, has leased a pavilion on the Italian Athletic field off Berlin street where meetings are to be held. The motto of the United States marines, "Always Ready," has been adopted and as many members as can be received will be added to the rolls within a few weeks. It is expected that the use of a range somewhere just outside the city limits will be procured for regular target practice meets during the summer and fall.

GRANITEVILLE.
